HEALTH & SAFETY (HSR) REPRESENTATIVE TRAINING

Health and Safety Representative Training - Year 1

Learn how to be a great Health and Safety Representative (HSR). Having recently been elected as a HSR, this five-day program provides you with the skills and confidence to identify and resolve workplace health and safety issues.

Course Overview

HSRs play an important role in every organisation, because they advise and oversee health and safety matters within the workplace.

By completing this program, HSRs will gain the powers to direct that unsafe work ceases and issue provisional improvement notices if required.

Who is it For?

Newly-elected HSRs and/or re-elected HSRs.
